Carpet Tiles: from Manufacture to Specification

Presented by Tim Hone of AIREA Plc

Enabling an informed evaluation of the performance characteristics & environmental qualities of carpet tiles, this seminar considers both the component materials & manufacturing processes involved in the construction of commercial carpet tiles.

The Learning Aims are to Understand:

- How the various components of carpet tiles impact durability
- The different structures of contract carpet tiles & how they impact performance and appearance
- Carpet tiles within the spectrum of responsible flooring solutions
- The main international environmental standards for building materials

Please ensure you let us know if you plan on attending, and we have a mobile number if circumstances change.
